

DESCRIPTIVE ESSAY

- The focus is to create a vivid mental image for the reader. By using intricate details and expressive language, you invite readers into a sensory experience, making them feel a part of the story.
- Descriptive writing can take the form of newspaper articles, book reports, research papers, accounts of a single event, travelogues, and memoirs of a personal experience.
- Write an Introductory Paragraph.
- Start with a hook like a rhetorical question, an interesting fact or an anecdote. Next, provide the context/background/setting/characters for your essay. Then write the three-point thesis statement, followed by a transitional hook.
- Write Three Body Paragraphs.
- Each paragraph in the body of the essay should focus on its own distinct issue that helps develop and support the thesis statement in your topic sentence. Make sure you're using factual information to support your thesis and are maintaining an objective point of view. Each body paragraph should begin with a topic sentence. Parse out details in each body paragraph. Specific examples always make more of an impression than generalizations.
- Write a Concluding Paragraph.
- This paragraph should only contain information you've already presented earlier in the essay. Use this space to restate your thesis, summarize your supporting points from each body paragraph, and wrap up your essay.

OUTLINE STRUCTURE

▪ Introduction

- Write a hook(rhetorical question ,interesting fact, anecdote) that helps your reader relate to the senses you're tapping into.
- Provide some general background about the thing you're describing.
- Form a thesis statement that makes a claim rather an expression (but may not necessarily include an argument).
- Transitional hook

▪ Body paragraph: Physical Description

- Provide a topic sentence introducing the subject.
- Give an in-depth physical description of the subject.

▪ Body paragraph: Contextual Description

- Describe your subject within its given context, like its physical surroundings or temporal environment.

▪ Body paragraph: Emotional Description

- Describe how the subject emotionally or mentally affected those who interacted or experienced it.

▪ Conclusion:

- Restate your thesis about the subject's description.
- Consider the subject (and its description) outside of what you've already mentioned in the essay. How might it

Descriptive Essay

Task

Develop a three-point thesis statement while observing the following pictures.

Descriptive Essay

Three-point Thesis Statement

Lahore is the cultural heart of Pakistan, showcasing its beautiful old buildings, experiencing the vibrant energy of its busy streets, and embracing the genuine warmth of its friendly people.

Descriptive Essay

Three-point Thesis Statement

Lahore is the cultural heart of Pakistan, showcasing its beautiful old buildings, experiencing the vibrant energy of its busy streets, and embracing the genuine warmth of its friendly people.

Writing Exercise: Writing Thesis Statements

Write a thesis statement for each of the following topics:

- A close friend
- Unattractive fashion trends
- Unusual food preferences

A Memorable Journey through a Historical City

Introductory Paragraph

(Reader's Hook: Anecdote) Last summer, as I walked through a narrow street lined with ancient walls, I felt as if history was whispering around me, telling stories of people who had lived there long before I arrived. (Context/Background) The unique blend of history, energy, and human warmth defines Lahore as a city. (Thesis Statement) Lahore is the cultural heart of Pakistan, showcasing its beautiful old buildings, experiencing the vibrant energy of its busy streets, and embracing the genuine warmth of its friendly people. (Transitional Hook) From its majestic old structures to metropolitan sites, the city of Lahore invites visitors to experience its culture.

In-Class Task

- Write an introductory descriptive paragraph (5–6 sentences) on one of the following:
- My favourite movie character
- The greatest person in history
- My favourite book and its influence on my life
- Describe a unique cultural event/festival that you attended
- Describe your favourite restaurant
- Describe the perfect fantasy vacation destination

Introduction
Reader’s hook		2	10
Anecdote, question, interesting fact
Setting /Background (Lead-in)		1
Provides the context/setting to the description:
Three-Point Thesis Statement		5
Thesis statement sentence is clear with three supporting ideas
Transitional Hook		1
Mechanics		1

Assignment 1
Introductory Paragraph on Descriptive Essay
Writing in
Week 4