

Narrative Essay Rubric

Introduction		9
Reader's hook (Anecdote, rhetorical question, interesting fact) is engaging and relevant	2
Setting the scene/Background Provides the information the reader will need to understand the story: setting, characters, background	2
Three-Point Thesis Statement offers a moral or lesson learned along with three points in parallel (rising action, climax, falling action)	4
Transitional Hook Hints upon the problem/conflict or rising action	1
Organization (3 Body Paragraph)		9
Paragraph 2: Rising Action – Develops a problem or conflict leading up to climax and provides supporting details	3
Paragraph 3: Climax – Clearly develops the turning point of the story where the problem or conflict reaches its peak and provides supporting details	3
Paragraph 4: Falling Action – Clearly develops the events after climax or turning point that leads to resolution and provides supporting details	3
Supporting Details Includes details and descriptions that help the reader understand what the writer experienced. Examples are concrete. The writing employs narrative techniques: dialogue, flashback, sensory details)
Cohesion and Coherence Writing about the events of your experience clearly, using time chronologically, from beginning to end, cohesive words are used. Transitions hooks are used to connect paragraphs.	1+1	2
Conclusion		3
Resolution Clearly reveals the solution to the problem. Rephrasing thesis. Provides a concluding remark/statement	2+1=3
Mechanics		2
spelling, punctuation, and grammar, varied sentence structure	2	25
Total marks

